Greetings from our Journey Choir

Submitted by Meredith Hink

Our final anthem for this spring is titled You Think of Me by Patricia Mock and Richard A. Nichols. The scripture referenced in this song comes from Psalms 34 and 104 as well as Revelation 22:16. My husband and I first heard this song for an All Saint's Day celebration. It made us remember our mothers – Elizabeth Hink and Barbara Zondag for its focus on the beauty and wonder of God's creation and for the ultimate sacrifice paid for by Jesus so we could join Him one day in heaven. Both of our mothers loved being in nature whether it was camping (a favorite of Beth's) or tending to her many gardens (a favorite of Barbara's). Both of our mothers were devout Christians and helped us along our faith journeys. In belated honor of Mother's Day and in anticipation of a new growing season we hope you will enjoy this beautiful choral piece.
